

CONTAMINATION

A storm comes and washes trash into the river. Add two drops of contamination into your cup.

Pour half of your water into another person's cup

Switch cups with the person to your right

Pour 1/3 of your water in the cup on your left, and 1/3 into the cup on your right

CONTAMINATION

Your neighbor changed his oil and spilled some in the storm drain. Add two drops of contamination into your water

Choose another person's cup and pour half of their water into your cup

Trade cups with any person of your choice

CONTAMINATION

Your city's water pipes are old and rusty. Add two drops of contamination into the cup of the person to your left.

Evenly distribute all of your water to all the other cups so until your cup is empty

CONTAMINATION

The business down the street got a permit to discharge pollution into the river. Add two drops of contamination into the cup of the person to your left and right.

Pour half of your water into the cup of the person on your right.

Pour half of your water into another person's cup

Switch cups with the person to your left

CONTAMINATION

A train runs off the tracks spilling chemicals into a nearby river. Add two drops of contamination into any cup.

Pour 1/3 of your water in the cup on your left, and 1/3 into the cup on your right

